4 different itineraries to cover all level

LA SERPENTINE

QUITE DIFFICULT

This itinerary starts with a climb through the forest where you can take in some scenic views along the way. The first part includes some technical passages, but no kick turns are needed. After having crossed the forest, walk through clearings to reach the arrival at Plaine Dranse. The descent can then be done on either the red "les Rochassons" or the green "la Belette" runs.

BARBOSSINE

QUITE DIFFICULT

This itinerary begins at the top of the Petit Châtel charlift, a little below on the right. Start by going slightly uphill to the Barbossine Alpage, from where you'll take a left towards the forest, along the summer walking track. The second part of this trail goes through the heart of the forest, up to the start of the "Chaux Longe" drag lift. For the third and final part, walk alongside the drag lift, facing the Dents du Midi, then cross the blue "Panoramique" run to reach the "Tour de Don" First Aid cabin. To ensure your safety, make sure you follow the signposts which take you around the ski lift pulley. The descent is done via the "Tour de Don" red run, followed by the "Ecoreuil" red run. Once at the bottom of the "Ecoreuil", you can make your way back to the village by taking the Petit Châtel chairlift down.

 A pedestrian pass is required to access the start of this itinerary.

LE MORCLAN

QUITE DIFFICULT

At the top of the Super Châtel gondola, take a left towards the ski tow rope. The trail starts from the middle of the beginners' slope, heading in the direction of the Morclan chairlift. After a couple of kick turns under the chairlift, you will join a groomed trail which will lead you to the summit. Once there, take in the spectacular 360° views of the surrounding valleys. Follow the "Chermillon" red run back down. This itinerary is ideal for those wanting to work on their cardio, with a high and steady percentage of elevation gain.

LA FRANCO-SUISSE

EASY

Once at the top of the Super Châtel gondola, follow the pedestrian track towards lake Conche. The first part of this itinerary is along the pedestrian track until you reach the Chalet Neuf drag lift. The track continues through the forest, heading to the top of the drag lift. Once at the top, take in the stunning panorama of the Dents du Midi. Follow "Le Lac" blue run down, to the left of the drag lifts. With an elevation gain of only 200m and being mostly along a groomed track, this itinerary is ideal for someone new to ski touring.
